

The Women and Girls of Crewe, the North of England and Beyond, 1830 to 2016

Conference with evening film
and wine reception

Manchester Metropolitan University, Cheshire

Wednesday 7 December 2016

For Call For Participants and further information see:

www.localyouthengagement.org

The conference aims to reassess and celebrate the activities, histories, writings and cultural and political importance of the girls and women of Crewe, the North of England and the UK generally in the years between 1830 and 2016.

The conference is supported by Crewe Town Council and aims to bring together academic speakers and local specialists, it will be free and open to the public. Registration, opening online in September, necessary for all delegates.

Conference Organisers: Orlagh McCabe and Kirsty Bunting, Senior Lecturers in the Interdisciplinary Studies Department, MMU Cheshire @Lye_Crewe